Welcome to the New Garrison Commander Colonel James Denny MBE MA

Colonel James Denny took command of Tidworth, Netheravon and Bulford Garrison on 4th September.

Commissioned into the Royal Regiment of Fusiliers in 1980, Colonel Denny has served in Northern Ireland (in every rank from 2Lt to Lt Col), Cyprus, the Balkans, Op GRANBY, Iraq, Ivory Coast and Afghanistan, where he commanded British Forces during Op HERRICK in 2005.

He has been Director of Studies at the Kuwaiti Command and Staff College, Chief of Staff 5th Division and comes to this Garrison from Jordan where he was the Senior British Liaison Officer, establishing and then commanding the British Military Training Team there.

Colonel Denny is pleased to be here and is looking forward to getting around and meeting as many people as possible in the coming weeks.

A Centre of Excellence

Facilities at the Tidworth Equestrian Centre, (the 'TEC'), are now complete, following the official opening last month of the newly-constructed Indoor Riding School.

The ribbon was cut by General Christopher Elliott from the Army Sport Control Board, one of several contributors to the £200,000 cost of the building; other financial sponsors were the Army Central Fund, the Army

Welfare Grant Committee and the Nuffield Trust for the Forces of the Crown.

With the main activities at the Centre being provided by the Tidworth Riding Club and the Combined Services Polo Club, the TEC is now a 'centre of excellence' for equestrianism in the Army, offering superb stabling facilities, an outdoor arena and now an indoor riding school for soldiers and their families to use and enjoy. It will also be able to provide employment for grooms and instructors as well as training for those who want to go in to the sport as a career.

The Riding School, run by Vickie Angelo, provides lessons for all ages, Saturday to Thursday. For more information, please call 07500 - 868 940.

The Wellington Academy

Open Afternoon
Thurs 17 October
16:00 - 19:00 hrs

The Wellington Academy is committed to the education and care of every single student. Families and students of year 5/6 and the wider community are invited to come and see for yourselves what we have to offer :

- Co-educational state boarding and day school for students aged 11-19.
- visit our state-of-the-art campus, including our boarding house and sixth form facilities,
- meet our students and dedicated staff
- see why we are the right school for your child
- 18:00 hrs : An Introduction to the Academy from Mike Milner, Acting Principal, in the school theatre

The Wellington Academy benefits from the backing and expertise of Wellington College, one of the UK's leading independent schools. With a new leadership in place from September 2013, (Dr Anthony Seldon, Master of Wellington College, as Executive Head, and Mike Milner as Acting Principal), there is a drive to ensure the best possible outcomes for our students in 2014 and beyond. We have a strong emphasis on raising attainment and development of character for all students.

Since opening in 2009 the Wellington Academy is proud of the strong links it has established with the community, both military and civilian. Our student numbers have increased to over 1100, with nearly 300 in the sixth form and over 80 boarders benefiting from our fantastic £32 million state-of-the-art campus. We offer a broad and inclusive curriculum with a range of academic and applied learning options, to ensure that every child is able to reach their potential.

Royal Welsh Summer Rugby

Captain Dai Gray, the Welfare Officer of The Royal Welsh, in partnership with Andover Rugby Club, ran a successful children's rugby camp over the summer holidays. The 3-day camp concentrated on rugby values, rules and skills.

Over 50 military and civilian children from the TNB Garrison area took part, all of various ages and ability; for some this was their first experience of rugby.

"The Camp was a great success and something that could be run on an annual basis", Captain Gray commented. "It was good to see the kids having fun!"

Ex Long Run Home

Ex LONG RUN HOME was an endurance challenge set by the Commanding Officer of 4 MI Battalion. The aim of the 136-mile run, from Headquarters 4MI Battalion in Bulford to Headquarters Intelligence Corps in Chicksands, Bedfordshire, was to raise funds for both ABF The Soldiers' Charity and the Motor Neurone Disease Association.

The route on the first day took the runners through the town of Marlborough, of which the Battalion has the Freedom; afterwards, the majority of the challenge followed the Ridgeway path across Oxfordshire.

Of course, there has to be an element of competition in all military events - and this was no exception. Four of the Battalion's companies competed for the honour of being the fastest team, each runner rotating through individual legs of 10-15 miles each, totalling some 35 miles each day. The exercise finished at Headquarters Intelligence Corps on the afternoon of the 4th day and its completion was marked by a parade (and doughnuts) - and with the Corps Colonel congratulating everyone for their efforts.

Although Exercise LONG RUN HOME is over, donations are still coming in, so if you would like to donate to two very good causes, then please visit our JustGiving site at : www.justgiving.com/teams/longrunhome

Coming soon : New Buses on the Activ8 route

Salisbury Reds will soon be launching 3 new British built Enviro 400 double deck buses from Alexander Dennis onto the popular Salisbury to Andover Activ8 route.

Andrew Wickham, Managing Director of Go South Coast, the Go Ahead-owned group of bus and coach operators in the region, was joined by Garrison Commander Col James Denny, Deputy Commander Lt Col David Barron and Salisbury Reds Operations Manager Andrew Sherrington, to launch the comfortable and environmentally friendly new buses, with their new livery - and free Wifi !

"August marked the 10th anniversary of the Go Ahead Group's acquisition of Wilts & Dorset, so we are pleased to celebrate with this major investment and reaffirm our commitment to providing the best possible service to the people of Wiltshire," said Andrew Wickham.

Colonel Denny commended the investment in the Activ8 route, saying : "The new buses will be much appreciated by our Service personnel and the families who choose to use this convenient service."

Please visit www.salisburyreds.co.uk for details of routes, tickets, season tickets, etc.

Royal Engineers repair a key Bridge in Helmand

Sappers from Tidworth-based 22 Engineer Regiment have repaired a key bridge in the Lashkar Gah district of Helmand Province.

Basharan Bridge, which was first built in 2010, crosses the Char Anjir Wadi, linking local communities in the Basharan and Babaji areas. The bridge allows farmers from Babaji to move their produce to markets in Lashkar Gah and makes moving between the economic hubs of Lashkar Gah and Gereshk more efficient. More locally, the bridge also makes it easier for children to attend school in Basharan.

The bridge had been damaged by an improvised explosive device laid by insurgents earlier this year. The Sappers, from 5 Squadron, mounted a two-day operation in the soaring Afghan heat to repair the bridge, replacing damaged parts with new ones, so it can remain in place permanently.

Captain George Andrews, 22 Engineer Regiment, said: "My troop worked hard on the task despite the heat and we could all see what it meant to the local people as a small crowd had gathered by the time we had done."

Lieutenant Colonel Jason Kerr, Commanding Officer 22 Engineer Regiment, said:

"It was very satisfying to repair Basharan Bridge which is used regularly by locals in the area.

"The Engineers have been busy this tour not only reinforcing existing British bases across Helmand but also removing some, as our profile across the province has reduced. It's a real indicator of progress when we close or handover a base - it shows the Afghans just don't need us there anymore."

19 Regt RA fires Royal Salute

To mark the occasion of Her Majesty the Queen's arrival in Scotland, members of 127 (Dragon) Battery, 19 Regiment Royal Artillery, travelled from Tidworth to Edinburgh Castle to perform a 21-gun Royal Salute.

The guns were set up on Mill's Mount (the location of the famous one o'clock gun) and began firing as the Queen stepped out of her car at Holyrood Palace. Although this was a very special occasion in its own right, the event was particularly pertinent as it was 19th Regiment's first engagement in its recruiting area under its new title, 'The Scottish Gunners'. All those present felt very proud and honoured to be part of the event.

Reading pays Dividends

Sig Ashley Brimelow from 215 Signal Squadron is the lucky winner of the 'Big Read Challenge', organised by Functional Skills tutors at 10 Army Education Centre in conjunction with the Reading Agency.

Soldiers were set the challenge of reading six books and completing a journal describing what they had read.

"I read the books on my phone while I was waiting to pick someone up at the airport!" said Sig Brimelow.

"I never used to read much before and if my Sergeant Major hadn't suggested it, I wouldn't have bothered, but I read 6 books in two weeks and now I can't stop - I really like reading now!"

He was presented with a Kindle by Lt Col Stuart Barltrop, Commander ETS.

"A huge number of soldiers who started the challenge, completed it - and enjoyed it," said Kirsty Alderson, one of the tutors. "They found reading a good alternative to the Xbox!"

Watch out for the Autumn Challenge - starting soon!
Open to all serving soldiers - details from the Education Centre in Jellalabad Barracks, Tidworth.

Thanks to The Soldiers' Charity

The Under-8s team from the Tidworth Town Football Club now have a super-smart new strip, thanks to their coach, Tracy Jackson, and the generosity of ABF The Soldiers' Charity. The team posed for this picture wearing their new tops for the first time after it was presented to them by Andy Batcock on behalf of the charity.

"It's really fantastic kit, we're really pleased with it" said Steve Slater, Chairman of the Club. "80% of the children in the Club come from military families and to have the name of The Soldiers' Charity on the front of the shirts really gets the charity's name out there and noticed".

The Club is a FA Chartered Standard Community Club and meets at their pitches on Humber Lane, Tidworth. There are 10 children's teams (ages 7-14), an adult team, a Soccer School and a Development School. For more details visit www.tidworthtownfc.co.uk.

Tidworth's new Play Park is named

The newest and largest play park in the Garrison was officially opened on 20th September. Its name, "Hero Park", was suggested by the children from nearby Clarendon Infants School, winners of the play park naming competition.

"It's a joy to see children enjoying themselves", said Garrison Commander, Colonel James Denny, after cutting the ribbon, with the help of Katie Bates from Clarendon Junior School. "The message to everyone is: use it, enjoy it, but please do look after it!" he said.

The play park has been provided by MODern Housing Solutions (MHS), the organisation responsible for maintaining Service Families' Accommodation on behalf of the Defence Infrastructure Organisation (MOD/DIO). Located close to the Wylde Road quarters, the new play park caters for children of all ages, with the latest in British Safety Standard (BS EN) play equipment and safety surfacing and has a fenced area for smaller children.

A "SSAFA Big Brew," organised by MHS with the help of IRHA, provided tea, coffee and cakes for everyone and raised around £130 for SSAFA.

Raising the Flag for the Special Olympics 2013

Soldiers from 4 (Close Support) Battalion REME had the honour of raising the flag for the Special Olympics at the opening ceremony held in Bath's Royal Crescent recently.

The Special Olympics was established in 1978 and is considered as the 'third' member of the Olympic family. The Special Olympics Great Britain offers year round sports training and competitions for people with intellectual (learning) disabilities.

The ceremony was attended by over 7,000 athletes, volunteers and supporters. There was a special video message from Prime Minister, David Cameron and the evening culminated in a performance from Britain's Got Talent star, Susan Boyle.

"This was a wonderful opportunity to be involved with the continuation of the Olympic legacy", said WO1 RSM Verity Bartlett. "Everything was rehearsed and went well and the flag is flying high!"
